*When you go home
have a nice home
to go to*

Dear Amy—Don't wonder that Jennie's husband stays down town nights so. She doesn't seem to care a thing about fitting her home. Fred would stay home more, I know, if Jennie would make it more congenial for him. He won't mind giving her the money to buy furniture with either, if she'll only go buy it and keep it looking tight when she gets it. All she thinks about is how she looks when she is out—not what her home looks like when Fred is in.

Bye, bye Lou

P. S.—Jennie could furnish her home so nicely with first-class furniture and for so little money, too, if she would only visit

His easy payment terms are so liberal and she won't have to draw on her savings account

COOPER ENDORSES LOCAL
Y. M. C. A.*Philanthropist Becomes Member
When Invited By Delegation of Young Men.

L. T. Cooper, the philanthropist, who electrified Lexington by furnishing at his own personal expense the bread that is used in the Orphan's Homes in that city, who established a "Bread Line" for the indigent poor, and who is conducting an agricultural exposition to encourage the farmers, whom he considers the bone and sinew of the land, became more thoroughly identified with Lexington in particular and Central Kentucky in general, when he became a member of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Mr. Cooper was waited upon by a delegation of some of Lexington's best known young men and invited to join the local Y. M. C. A. Mr. Cooper, a native Kentuckian, not only accepted the invitation to become a member, but endorsed the work of one of Lexington's most deserving and commendable institutions.

The demand for Tanlac, the remarkable medicine that is now being introduced by Mr. Cooper to prove his theories on health, is now the biggest thing of the kind ever seen in this section. The preparation is accomplishing a powerful amount of good among the thousands who suffer from catarrh, stomach, liver and kidney complaints, as well as rheumatism.

Hundreds of those who have actually used Tanlac talk enthusiastically about the astonishing results they obtained from the medicine.

Peter Geiser, living at 412 Clifton ave., Lexington, said:

"While I haven't used an entire bottle of Tanlac so far, yet I consider it the most wonderful medicine I have ever seen. I suffered for years with stomach and kidney trouble. I also had headaches, indigestion and attacks of rheumatism. My troubles have all disappeared and I can trace my remarkable improvement to no other cause than Tanlac. It is fine."

Tanlac can now be obtained in Richmond from H. L. Perry, druggist.—Adv.

Aid The Italians.

Mr. Ricci is collecting funds to aid the distressed Italians. This money is greatly needed. Held those who have suffered great disaster from earthquake, through no fault of their own. No war has devastated them, and their affliction came suddenly—in the twinkling of an eye.

The service held at the Christian church on Sunday evening, January 17, was remarkable in two ways: First, for the large per cent of men present; and second, for undivided attention and deep interest shown by the audience in the discourse. Dr. Barnes preached the third of his special sermons on "The Man Who Would Not Be Discouraged," and proved himself a master of his theme. The sermon has attracted much attention and we feel sure that the house will again be crowded on next Sunday morning and night.

Mr. Turley's Bible class, one hundred strong, marched down the aisle and were seated in the middle pews. Not in many years, if ever before, have so many men been congregated together at a religious service.

Supplement to Kentucky History.

Prof. Chas. A. Keith, head of the Department of History and Civics at the Eastern State Normal, has written a supplement to Kentucky History, which will be used in the advanced classes of that institution.

Prof. Keith is an Oxford graduate and a very able man, and we congratulate the school on having secured his services.

Will Continue Business.

The poultry and produce business of the late A. Lee Gott will be continued at the late stand on Irvine street by Mrs. A. Lee Gott and J. S. Gott. They solicit a continuance of the business of all old customers of the house and of the public at large. Highest prices paid for country produce and courteous treatment to all.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to relatives and friends for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of my husband and our father.

Hold to Your Purse.

A lady lost $450 in Lexington last Friday when a negro thief grabbed and ran away with her purse. Purse-snatchers are quite numerous nowadays, so put your money in a safe place when visiting the city.

Itching, torturing skin eruptions disappear, annoy, drive one wild. Doan's Ointment is praised for its good work. 50c at all drug stores.—Adv. Jan.
